I am a Brookline parent of two BHS students and Debbie was my roommate in college and in Brookline/Boston for several years.

7. Please explain history of Scholarship. Why is it being established?

Debbie was tragically killed in a car accident on 10/4/20 at the age of 55. She was a vivacious, energetic woman who loved to run, worked hard and a strong believer of education. I wanted her spirit to stay alive and thought this fund would provide inspiration and strength to young runners to work hard, stretch themselves and grow into the best they can be in whatever they pursue as Debbie did.
