Members of School Committee,

Mr. Davin Wolok of Brookline visited my office on May 1, 2019 to inquire about making a donation in honor Mr. Kamel Masoud. In my haste, I neglected to procure a letter from Mr. Wolok detailing this donation. This letter serves as my attestation to the events described below.

Mr. Masoud is a mechanic at Shimon's Service Center in Brookline who performed work on Mr. Wolok's car and refused payment for the service. Mr. Wolok, in return, made this donation to the Public Schools of Brookline in honor of Mr. Masoud. Mr. Wolok's choice of $54.00 is a reflection of the importance of the number 18 (as a representation of "chai") in Jewish Culture.

Thank you,
