Revolving Funds Overview Issues

Adult Education

- Restructured Administration leading to decreased overhead expenses
- Revenue up, Expenses Down for FY10 – Reflects increase in summer student programs
- Programs consolidated to ensure minimum enrollment for every class
- FY10 Profit – $213K Fund Balance $329K

School Athletics

- Recent history has required supplement from General Fund – Not budgeted.
- Challenged by increases in Transportation, Salaries, and Program Costs and greater need for Scholarships
- Program required General Fund supplement to cover Deficit.

Early Childhood

- Continued high demand combined with freeze in state voucher program putting pressure on budget
- Pressure from scholarship requests
- Tuition reflects market prices – support current FY10 operations
- Tuition increase for FY11 – up 3%
- FY10 Performance break-even
